A POLITICAL TURNCOAT.

A DEMOCRAT FOR REVENUE WHO POSES AS SIMON PURE.

Temple, the Traitor, Would Perpetrate Himself on the Administration for Patronage—A Specimen of His Democracy.

FROM THE NEWS, JUNE 17, 1892.

The Way to Win.—Democrats are pretending to find courage and hope in the theory that the Republican party is going to prove itself weak in the campaign and at the polls by reason of disappointments and divisions. To hear them talk a foolish person might suppose that the Democracy was in a condition of blissful harmony, to which the heavenly choir can make only a feeble and quivering approach; that its leaders were already disintegrated of every ambition save only to promote the triumph of pure goodness and that the universe was about to behold the sweet and solemn advent of the millennium under Democratic auspices.

We cannot admit, even for the sake of argument, that this is really the present state of our friends, the enemy, or bears any resemblance to any conceivable future state of theirs. In point of fact they are much distressed and harassed by their own prospects, realizing that to get a leader they will probably be forced to choose between two implacable foes, one of whom is attended by a squad of ponderous blunder-busses and the other by a company of agile razor-bearers.

OUR CANDIDATE.

(Daily News October 6, 1892.)

In this issue of the News will be found the announcement of Judge G. N. Perkins as a candidate for the legislature from the Twenty-fifth district. The Judge is a colored gentleman, and the News desires to go on record so far as he is concerned. We are for him first, last and all the time. Vote for him, black and white Republicans. Vote early and as often as you can. He will stand like a Hercules for the principles that Lincoln and Sewall advocated. Judge Perkins is a typical Afro-American. Nominate Perkins and success will crown the efforts of those who are struggling for advancement. Trifle with these black-skinned brothers no longer. Forbearance ceases to be a virtue when you look the school house door. Education is just what the colored race are seeking for. This they must have—this is just what such men as Judge Perkins intend they shall have. Elect Judge Perkins as a legislator and then this newspaper will herald to the world that you Republicans are sincere.

BRIDGES Carried Away by Floods.

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 2.—The Rock Island bridge across the Canadian at Union City, Okla., was washed out last night, and the Santa Fe bridge at Purcell, Ind. Ter., was also carried off by the same flood. The rivers are all swollen down in the territory, and the railroads are experiencing considerable damage.

FIRE SHOOTING ACCIDENT.

MARSHAL, Mo., Oct. 2.—Tom Sanders, familiarly known as "bricktop," a notorious negro character, was shot and fatally wounded by another negro named Churchill Wood at a dance last night. The shooting was the result of a quarrel over a woman whom they had been dancing with. Five shots were fired and three took effect.

END OF THE BALL SEASON

Boston Walks Away With the Pennant Without Half Trying.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 2.—The longest baseball season closed Saturday. The Boston club won the pennant with hardly an effort. Their victory has been a foregone conclusion for some time, and the club has of late been playing careless ball and granting players vacations because there was no longer anything to fight for. The big league has had only a fair season. Some of the clubs have made money and some have not. The interest seemed to grow less rather than increase towards the close of the season. Following is the standing of the clubs as they finished the season.

Team	W. L. P.	W. L. P.
Boston	100	80
Brooklyn	87	68
Hartford	87	64
Cleveland	83	68
Philadelphia	81	67
St. Louis	77	62
Minneapolis	76	61
Chicago	75	60
New York	68	59
Washington	69	59

Henry Starr Again.

He and "Kid" Wilson Make an Unsuccessful Attempt to Break Jail.

FOUR SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 2—"Kid" Wilson and Henry Starr led an unsuccessful attempt to break jail yesterday. They were assisted by John Pointer, Alexander Allen and Frank Collins, condemned murderers, and Charles Young and Jim Fair.

They refused to go into their cells at dinner time and made an attack upon one of the guards, who tried to force them into their cells. They had been making trouble all day and a big force of guards were on hand. One guard fired, shooting Young in the face and breaking his cheekbone, but did not seriously injure him. Pointer, Starr and Wilson begged to be shot. The court meets to-day to try the cases of Starr and Wilson, and this made them desperate.
